

General Selection Criteria

Sport Inclusion Australia, in conjunction with the various National Sporting Organisations, is planning to send a team to the Virtus Oceania Asia Games – Brisbane 2022. Following is the General Selection Criteria that will apply for the Australian Team. It should be read in conjunction with the relevant performance based Sport Specific Selection Criteria for the Australian Team. All athletes whom wish to be considered for selection must meet the General Selection Criteria plus the Sport Specific Selection Criteria for their particular sport.

SELECTION GUIDELINES

To be eligible for selection in the Australian Oceania Asia Games Team, athletes must;

1. Be, and continue to be, eligible to participate in the relevant event as an Australian competitor in accordance with the rules of their sport i.e. residency/citizenship, age;
2. Be registered with Sport Inclusion Australia for the current financial year and a member of the relevant National Sporting Organisation (NSO);
3. Have satisfactorily completed the Virtus/Athlete Eligibility Application by June 2022;
4. Abide by the Sport Inclusion Australia and NSO Athlete's Agreement;
5. Meet the Sport Specific Selection Criteria;
6. Have previously travelled with a state or national team or been involved in a training camp and demonstrated that they can manage independently away from individual support or have previously spoken to Sport Inclusion Australia about their individual circumstances;
7. Agree to participate in all National Team preparation procedures as notified by the relevant NSO and Sport Inclusion Australia;
8. Be able to pay the associated costs for their involvement with the team;
9. Display appropriate behaviour, sportsmanship and demeanour expected of Australian representatives;
10. Be medically able to complete all training and competition requirements leading up to and during the event;
11. Not use any prohibited substance or commit any other doping offence under the relevant anti-doping policy applying to their sport;
12. Not be the subject of any outstanding Court Order. Further the athlete will notify Sport Inclusion Australia of the full details of any order or conviction, past or present, that has been made against him/her by any Court of any jurisdiction;
13. Maintain or improve the performance standard on which they were selected.

To be read in conjunction with the relevant Sports Specific Selection Criteria for the Australian Team